

The penultimate day of the School year marks the opportunity for the Pre-Prep School to celebrate our Year 2 through the Leavers' Service and Prizegiving of celebrations on three consecutive days with similar celebrations for the Prep School the following day and then Commemoration Day for the Senior School a day later.

Commemoration Day is a very special day for the School and especially for our Upper Sixth Leavers; it is the most important day in the School year and all Senior School pupils are expected to attend. In 1693 Sir Thomas Cookes re-endowed the School and enjoined that once a year a sermon should be preached to the Scholars of the School in St John's Parish Church. It is this that the School commemorates as well as celebrating the end of the academic year with Prizegiving. Pre-Prep and Prep common abbreviation for Commemoration Day).
